

December

REFLECT AND RESET

How can you focus your efforts on resetting and reflecting to close out the year?

b's December Intention: Year-End Review

b will spend the month reviewing their accomplishments, challenges, and personal growth over the past year. They will create a list of their achievements and areas they want to improve in the coming year.

Use the space below to set your intention for December.

A large, light gray rounded rectangular area containing ten horizontal white lines for writing.

